Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fritschi.

There is disclosed in Fritschi an infusing device, comprising: a pot 1; a timing mechanism 31; an infuser mechanism 2 that includes a filter element, the infuser being movable (rotatable) from a first position to a second position; a release mechanism 32 providing movement of the infuser between the first and second positions; and a counterbalance (flotation device 3) (counterweight 14).

Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morales.

There is disclosed in Morales an infusing device, comprising: a pot 5; a timing mechanism 11; an infuser mechanism 32 that includes a filter element, the infuser being movable (rotatable) from a first position to a second position; a release mechanism 26, 33 providing movement of the infuser between the first and second positions; and a counterbalance (torsion spring 26').

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 1761

Claims 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Ewert and McGrail et al. are cited for their disclosure of the state of the art.
